NELSON'S GALA DAY

Interior Capital Celebrates Dominion Anniversary With Much Enthusiasm

Nelson, B. C., July 1.—Nelson's annual two days' celebration of Dominion Day commenced this morning under pleasant conditions, the weather being all that could be desired and the attendance of fruit ranchers for miles around and outside visitors being very large. A long programme of games and sports was most successfully carried out, the contestants at baseball and football being local teams.

The most attractive item in the programme was the children's parade for this morning, when several hundred school children, dressed for the occasion, and each carrying a Union Jack, marched from the school grounds through the principal streets to Recreation Park, headed by the city band. The parade was an unusually large and attractive one.

The first annual shoot of the lately formed Interior Rifle Association, military and civilian, commenced this morning and will keep up for the next two days. Some 75 competitors from all over the interior are in attendance at the new Cottonwood rifle range. The scores were not completed tonight but Rev. H. M. Simpson, rector of St. George's church, Rossland, made the top score of the day, winning the Challenge Cup, presented by the association.

Tomorrow will be given up to an aquatic carnival, including a one and a half mile sculling race between T. D. Desbriay, of Nelson, champion of the Pacific Coast, and Lou Scholes, of Toronto, Dominion amateur champion.

The illuminated motor boat parade tomorrow night promises to be a most artistic success, and over eighty boats will be on parade.

No accidents marred today's proceedings, and up to 11:30 no arrests had been made, the crowd being a most orderly one.

RUSSIAN FORCE IN PREPARATION

Will March on Teheran in Case of Necessity—Capital in Panic

St. Petersburg, July 1.—Orders were issued today to the military department of the Caucasus to prepare troops for the Russian expedition to Teheran. Everything is to be in readiness in case further advances on the part of Bakhtiari tribesmen and the Russian interventionists make Russian intervention in Persia necessary. In addition to protecting the lives of Russian subjects at Teheran, the Russian Government is determined at all costs to keep open the highway between Baku and the capital. This road is Russian property and the principal artery of Russian trade, which already has suffered great losses as a result of the Persian disorders. It is believed that Great Britain will make no objection to the Teheran expedition.

Teheran, Persia, July 1.—The advance of the nationalist forces on Teheran today caused a semi-panic on the bazaars. People, fearing an outbreak of lawlessness and looting with which the police force would be powerless to cope, suddenly closed all their shops. A British and Russian diplomatic representatives will visit his Majesty tomorrow to discuss the situation.

Drops Dead on Street

Montreal, July 1.—Wm. Jarvis, the oldest newspaper man in Montreal, dropped dead on the street tonight. He had during his lifetime been connected with most of the Montreal papers. For the past quarter of a century he had been on the Star staff.

WINNIPEG BUILDINGS

Operations in Prairie Capital in Present Year Bid Fair to Break All Records

Winnipeg, July 1.—Winnipeg is building up with a rapidity which has not been equalled since 1906. The total of buildings permits for the month of June, $2,041,650, is the biggest for any one month since 1906.

As far as the year is concerned the prospect is good for record-breaking. For the first six months of 1908 the number of permits was 716, and for the six months of this year 1,305. The number of buildings for the first six months of 1908 was 987, and for this year so far is 1,549.

The cost of the buildings for which permits were granted during the first six months of 1908 was $2,238,250, and the cost of the buildings authorized since January 1, 1909, is $5,462,459.

BOY'S BRAVERY

Young Son of Judge Wilson of East Kootenay Saves Little Girl From Drowning

Nelson, B. C., July 1.—Yesterday little Jack Wilson, the 10-year-old son of Judge P. E. Wilson, very pluckily dived into 12 feet of water at the edge of the lake opposite the city, and rescued his playmate, the 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Stewart.

The girl was knocked into the water by a gust of wind striking the boat-house door, and Jack never hesitated, but plunged in and grasped the girl, kept her head above water, and after a struggle pushed her back to the float. A moment's hesitation and the little girl would have been drowned.

An effort will be made to get the Royal Humane Society medal for the judge's brave little son.

VANCOUVER WINS CRICKET MATCH

Vancouver, July 1.—Vancouver cricketers won the match played with the Victoria team today. The score stood: Vancouver, 200; Victoria, 140.

DESPERADO SURROUNDED

Pursuers Feel Sure of Capturing Murderer of Constable Decker

AWAITING DAYLIGHT TO MAKE CAPTURE

Bandit Stops in Flight to Hold Up Rancher Near Ashcroft

Ashcroft, July 1.—Just before nine o'clock this evening the town was thrown into commotion by the report that the train robber who on Monday evening murdered Constable Decker and escaped had been seen half a mile north of the town, fording the Bonaparte river.

A dozen men formed a posse which set out immediately. The leaders, assisted by the bloodhounds, picked up the trail of the bandit a mile out and overtook him. Three shots were fired at him, but he got away. For a time he stuck to the Cariboo road, and then was lost amongst the rocks of a nearby gulch.

A message from the posse reached Ashcroft just before midnight that the robber was certainly hemmed in and would be captured at daylight. He was armed with a shotgun when seen fording the stream. Another force of men is being made ready to go out in the morning.

Holds Up Rancher

Ashcroft, July 1.—The robber is still at large. Poses were out all night looking for the man who held up a rancher yesterday. Bloodhounds following his tracks came out at the north end of the Ashcroft bridge and lost the scent. The robber evidently saw the guards stationed on the bridge and changed his course and is now in hiding.

Scores of Indian scouts and police are out in all directions, scouring the hills and river.

It is learned that the robber had a meal at Berkeley's ranch yesterday, the Chinese cook, being alone, gave him something to eat, and later notified the police, giving the man's description, which corresponds with the description given by the rancher who was held up.

Identify of Dead Robber

Vancouver, July 1.—The police here believe that the train robber who was killed on Monday evening in a gun duel at Ashcroft by Constable Decker, may have been Wade, a holdup man who escaped several years ago with a number of other men from McNeill's Island penitentiary, near Seattle. Identification, however, is not yet complete.

Hon. R. G. Tatlow and family were considerably alarmed last evening by the receipt of a letter from Mr. Tatlow's daughter, Mrs. Cornwall, stating that a rancher had been held up by the desperado near their ranch. The rancher had proceeded thither, and Mr. Cornwall and he are arming themselves to prevent further attacks.

Prior to this the bandit had held up the Chinese cook at a neighboring ranch, that of T. Berkeley, and had forced him to give him a meal.

THREE DEATHS MAR HOLIDAY

Suicide and Two Other Fatalities Reported From Toronto

Toronto, July 1.—The holiday in Toronto was marred by three fatalities. At 2.30 in the morning Albert Frost, a young Englishman, seven years in this country, whose parents reside in England, jumped from the Glen road bridge, falling 125 feet and being practically smashed to pieces. There was hardly a sound bone in his body, when a policeman and a milkman, who witnessed the incident, but who could not reach Frost in time to prevent him jumping, reached the scene. Frost was of irregular habits, and up to the time of his death was employed in a poolroom.

Shortly after noon Leonard Buttrick, aged fifteen, while bathing, was drowned. Several companions tried to save him, but it is thought that he suffered a stroke of some kind, as he sank suddenly and did not come to the surface. After considerable work his body was recovered and carried to the home of his parents on Cowper avenue.

Tonight John B. Wilkie, of Mimico, was struck by a car at the corner of Simcoe and Emily streets, and instantly killed. He had just come from the union station from a train after an outing with his sweet heart, and after putting her on a car for her home in this city, started across the street to take a car for Mimico, not noticing a car coming in the opposite direction, which struck and instantly killed him. Wilkie was out from Wales about a year, and his sweetheart was also from that country.

Little Girl Killed

Winnipeg, July 1.—The three-year-old daughter of David Wilson, ex-M. P. P. for Gladstone, was run over and instantly killed by a street car this morning while playing near her home in Fort Rouge.

COUNCIL OF WOMEN

Delegates to International Gathering Leaving for Home—National Council Meeting

Toronto, July 1.—Nearly all the delegates to the International Council of Women left town today, the majority going west to Seattle en route to their respective homes.

The National Council held a meeting in Convention Hall, at which it was resolved to engage in an active campaign for the multiplication of councils throughout the Dominion. The Council of Aberdeen gave life to the movement by promising a subscription of $100 per year for five years. Lady Edgar was re-elected president, the other officers being elected as follows: Corresponding secretary, Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, Toronto; recording secretary, Mrs. McIntosh, Montreal; treasurer, Mrs. Frost, Smith Falls.

Mrs. Cummings in her report, stated that the past year had been the most eventful in the history of the council, the membership now including 15 life patrons and 69 life members. There are 25 local councils and 13 affiliated societies.

The report of the honorary treasurer showed an income of $1,634.20, a balance of $228.37 being on hand.

Lady Aberdeen, in her closing address, thanked the council for the warm reception accorded her, and congratulated the council on its growth from small beginnings.

Drowned in Lake St. Louis

Montreal, July 1.—Mrs. F. Devish, wife of a Witness reporter, and John Cain, aged 20, of Dorval, were drowned this afternoon when a dingy in which they were sailing on Lake St. Louis was upset by a squall. Devish and his 8-year-old girl were saved by a passing motor boat. Cain was a noted swimmer, and lost his life endeavoring to save that of Mrs. Devish.

MAY BE BODY OF LEON LING

Corpse of Chinaman Found in Hudson—Another Murder Mystery

New York, July 1.—Although complete identification was impossible tonight, there appears to be a strong probability that the body of a Chinaman which was found this evening floating in the Hudson river was that of Leon Ling, the murderer of Elsie Sigel. The man's height, weight, and general appearance tally with that of Leon Ling, but as the body was nude and had been in the water for more than a week, a thorough examination will be necessary to fully establish identity. Coroner McDonald believes that it is that of Leon, as do also a number of policemen. If it is Leon, the mystery of his death will be another mystery, although a theory that it was suicide would appear reasonable. The right side of the body was badly discolored, but whether it was due to effects of being in the water could not be ascertained tonight.

The new commissioner of police today found himself confronted in the first hour of his term with the third murder mystery within thirty days, as to the perpetrators of which there is not the slightest clue. Ung Low, a laundryman of the east side, was found early today strung between two vaults, his head beneath the water of one and his feet in the other. There were bloody finger marks on his neck. In the cash drawer, the police found one cent. All attempts to connect the murder of Ung with the murder of Elsie Sigel by Leon Ling have failed.

Ung had been beaten over the head with flatirons, probably by more than one man, and then slid between the tubs. He probably died by drowning.

To all appearances he had been killed for his money. The police are inclined to work on the theory that white men did the job.

UNDER SUSPICION

British Steamer Ethelwold Kept Under Close Watch by New York Officers

New York, July 1.—Customs inspectors today were still guarding the British steamer Ethelwold, which was seized last night at her dock in the Erie basin on orders issued by Collector Loeb, on suspicion that she was about to sail on a filibustering expedition to Santo Domingo. Her agents here said today she had been loaded with oil, and anything else that might be aboard was not of their knowledge.

Washington, July 1.—United States Attorney-General Wickersham has instructed the acting attorney general at New York to keep a sharp lookout on the movements of the steamer Ethelwold in that harbor, suspected of having been engaged for a filibustering expedition against the present government of Santo Domingo.

Bush Fires at Elk Lake

Elk Lake, Ont., July 1.—Owing to the dry weather of the last few days bush fires were started today in close quarters to the town. Some shacks on the outskirts were damaged or destroyed, but the town is entirely protected by the fire brigade.

Lackawanna Dodges Law

New York, N. Y., July 1.—The officers of the Lackawanna Railroad Company today were authorized by the directors to sell all the coal of the company at its mines in Pennsylvania at sixty-five per cent. of the tide-water market price. Directors of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Coal Company authorized the officers of that company to purchase the railroad company's coal. The coal company elected the following officers: President, Edward E. Loomis; vice-president, Daniel E. Russell; secretary and treasurer, J. J. A. Owens.

MURDERED BY EAST INDIAN

English Officer and Parsee Doctor Are Shot Down by Student

IMPERIAL INSTITUTE SCENE OF TRAGEDY

Colonel Sir William Curzon Wyllie and Dr. Lalaca Are Victims

London, July 1.—A startling double assassination of a political character occurred late tonight towards the conclusion of a public gathering at the Imperial Institute.

An Indian student, whose name is not known, shot and killed Lieut.-Col. Sir Wm. Hutt Curzon Wyllie, and Dr. Calas Lalaca, of Shanghai.

The gathering at the Imperial Institute, a building devoted to Indian and other colonial functions, was an "at home" to Indian students. Dr. W. Thurburn, one of the guests, thus graphically describes the scenes attending the murder.

"It was nearly 11 o'clock, and the musical programme was just concluding when I saw a middle-aged English gentleman conversing with a young Indian student. Suddenly the native drew a revolver and fired four shots at the head of the Englishman. Then came another shot as the Englishman fell, and a sixth, which struck an elderly Indian gentleman standing a few yards off, and who fell shot in the side. I rushed at the assassin, and others sprang forward at the same time. We seized him, but he struggled and wresting one hand free placed the revolver to his forehead, and pulled the trigger. It clicked harmlessly, as he had fired all of his shots.

"Meantime there was a terrible scene and commotion. The folding doors were finally closed to prevent the people from looking on the fearful sight. A doctor in the hall came forward, and knelt at the side of the Englishman, and said nothing could be done for him. At this moment someone exclaimed: 'Why it is Curzon Wyllie!'

A Wife's Grief

"Then a stately woman in evening dress came upstairs from the cloak room to discover what had happened. Looking at the recumbent figure and not immediately recognizing it, she said: 'Poor fellow.' She then knelt down, and as she looked closely at the disfigured face a look of horror leaped into her eyes and she exclaimed: 'It is my husband. Why wasn't I with him?' It was Lady Wyllie, who had left her husband only a few minutes previously.

"A group of men nearly were holding the assassin, whose other victim was groaning on the ground a few yards away. The victims were placed in an ambulance and removed to a hospital. Detectives carried the assassin."

Besides two revolvers, a twelve-inch dagger was found and a card bearing the name "Dhingri." The address was Leobury Road, Bayswater. Various papers and letters also were taken from the prisoner.

Sir William had been living at the Savoy hotel with his wife and some Indian friends. From the Savoy he proceeded to the "at home," which was held under the auspices of the Indian association, with which he was connected. Several hundred Indian students attended the function.

Murder Deliberate

The attack on Sir William occurred on a wide square landing leading to the staircase, which had been used as an overflow smoking room. Sir William and Lady Wyllie were just preparing to depart when the former was approached by the Indian student. One bullet shattered his right eye and another pierced the face just below the left eye.

Dr. Lalaca was a Parsee, and from present evidence it would seem that he was shot accidentally. The assassin, who is also a Parsee, is about 25 years old. He was cool and self-possessed after his arrest, and has slain without an obstinate silence. The identification of the man so far has been impossible, as a great number of visiting cards bearing different names were found on him. It is reported that he had in his possession written documents setting forth reasons and justification for the crime.

Lieut.-Col. Sir William Hutt Curzon Wyllie, retired, had been political A. D. C. to the secretary of state for India. He was formerly government agent in Rajputana and Central India, and was military secretary to the governor of Madras in 1881. He was also resident at several centres in India, and served in Afghanistan. He was born in 1848.

CONTRIBUTE TO NAVY

Legislative Council of St. Vincent Island Favors Handing Over Part of Revenue

St. Vincent, British West Indies, July 1.—The legislative council today unanimously passed a resolution introduced by an unofficial member in favor of an annual unconditional contribution of one per cent. of the local revenues towards the maintenance of the imperial navy. The council is aware that this amount is small, but the principle involved is a practical acknowledgment of the debt of gratitude for the material assistance and protection rendered the colony, past and present.

WILLOWS TO KNOW NO LONGER C. BO

Chinese Gentleman Offers Two Hundred Dollars to Whoever Catches Him There

Charlie Bo offers a reward of $200 to anyone who catches him at the Willows race track during the balance of the present meet. If anybody finds Mr. Bo there from today on he need only go to Mr. Bo's establishment on Store street and prove his case, and he'll get the money in cold hard cash.

This is not an advertising scheme. It is not akin to the mysterious Mr. Raffles stunt pulled off by enterprising papers to increase their circulation or prestige. It is merely Mr. Bo's earnest to himself and to the public at large that he longer will be seen where the foot footed geese romp around the half mile track to the financial benefit or detriment of their owners and others. Mr. Bo goes there no more.

This announcement is authorized by Mr. Bo. It is made at his solicitation. For some time past Mr. Bo has been a patron of the races, and his presence there together with the one or two lucky wagers made by him, have been the occasion of comment in the newspapers and among his friends. He believes that his business has not benefited by this unsought notoriety. He has made a few bets, but he has never been the plunger which friends or foes have made him out to be. But to set the matter at rest, Mr. Bo will go to the races no more. His offer of the reward is bona fide.

Incidentally it might be observed that Mr. Bo quits winner to the extent of $300.

Ripper may rip. Servience may serve. Lovely Mary may offer an incentive to Succeed, but despite all illusions and although Mr. Bo has been successful in his investments upon most of the ponies mentioned, the Willows will know him no more.

He says so, and so does the frigid two centuries.

ARRESTED MAN ADMITS IDENTITY

C. S. Kirkconnell, Taken at Whonnock, Is Francis Bailey of New York

Vancouver, July 1.—C. S. Kirkconnell, who was arrested two days ago by a New York detective, confessed to the chief of police this afternoon that he was Francis Bailey, who two years ago stole the proceeds of the sale of a shipload of goods which had been sent to Honduras.

Bailey will probably return to New York without extradition proceedings if he is allowed to close up some business deals he has on hand in Vancouver before he leaves. He is under 40 years old, a fine-appearing prosperous-looking man with iron grey hair.

Kirkconnell organized the business details connected with a shipment of two thousand tons of merchandise from New York to Honduras. Having delivered the goods, he secured cash for a draft in payment. The amount was one hundred and sixty thousand dollars. He was later arrested and

Rev. Canon Hensley Henson, of Westminster Abbey, accompanied by his wife, after spending three days in the city, left yesterday for Vancouver, en route for the east. The distinguished divine intends spending a month in Canada, and will be entertained at Winnipeg and other points.

The Victoria Nurses' Club was the scene of a most delightful tea on Tuesday last, when Miss Gibson entertained the members previous to her marriage, which takes place shortly, and also as a farewell to Miss Turner, who leaves for England on an extended trip next week. The clubhouse looked very dainty, where quantities of roses had been arranged.

More Trouble Over Rock

With the city still looking for a permanent site from which to secure a supply of crushed rock for local public works and a large number of offers already in hand the majority of which, however, are not considered suitable, there is likely to be a repetition of the trouble which arose over the Mount Tolmie site. One site greatly favored by the engineer was that located on May street, owned by Messrs. Grant & Lineham, but it now appears that some of the residents of that neighborhood object to blasting operations being carried on in their vicinity. The same objection will likely be made should any of the in-town sites be chosen, and the city is likely to have considerable trouble before its source of rock is secured.

He came to San Francisco, then to Vancouver, and bought a ranch thirty miles from here. committee on credentials declared that the Spokane delegates were not entitled to seats. In the debate on the report, some of the delegates called others "thieves, liars and scoundrels," and there was hysterical weeping and screaming. Advised that there was a riot in Plymouth church, a squad of police found the convention in tears. The report of the credentials committee was adopted.

HUSBAND'S HEROISM FAILS TO SAVE WIFE

New York, July 1.—Herman Reichert's quiet heroism failed to save his wife's life, and today her nine children are motherless. At the hospital where Mrs. Reichert was taken suffering from an internal hemorrhage following a fall on the sidewalk, the doctors informed her husband that she was dying.

"Can nothing be done to save her?" Reichert asked the physician.
"There is a small possibility that a transfusion of blood will save her," he was told.
"I would give the last drop of my blood for her," said Reichert. "Here's my arm."

The husband bared his arm and the doctors made injections and bound the arms of husband and wife together. Reichert insisted on the continuance of the operation until the doctors felt that its prolongation was not justified.

Mrs. Reichert rallied a little with the new blood, but did not survive.

Freight Rate War.

Washington, July 1.—Tariffs filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, effective today, make reductions on import freight traffic from New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore to Chicago that restore the old differential between Boston and those points. The reductions range from one to three cents a hundred pounds. Rates on import freight from the Atlantic coast to Chicago are now lower than ever before, as a result of the fight waged by the Boston and Maine road to wipe out the differential which puts Boston at a disadvantage.

FOR UNITED ACTION.

In all probability there will be a provincial election within a twelvemonth, and when it is brought on, we suppose that we will all do what we can to elect our political friends. This is not only natural, but it is quite right. True, in local politics personal sympathy plays a much more important part than political convictions, for the reason that we all think pretty much the same way upon the various questions coming within the purview of the provincial legislature. Nevertheless, there will always be party politics, we suppose. At least, we do not suppose they will have been obliterated within a twelvemonth. But how would it do for us to forget all about politics for a little while, and devote our attention to an endeavor to promote the material interests of the community? There are certain people who think they are being badly used if the paper which supports their political party does not give them a dose of vituperation once a day. They suspect its loyalty if it does not once in every twenty-four hours assure the world that their political opponents are of all men most miserable. But that's the sort of tactics that loses elections. It is because it never employs tactics of that kind that the Colonist rarely has to chronicle the defeat of candidates which it supports. Seeing, then, that there is no political value in interminable bickering, and seeing that no useful purpose is accomplished by saying unpleasant things about other people, or questioning their motives or discouraging their efforts, how would it do for us all to forget everything else for the time being except that we are all alike interested in making the community better?

Just now there is the best of reasons for united action. A friend of the Minister of Inland Revenue said to the Colonist the other day that Mr. Templeman had said on one occasion that there did not seem to be any strong railway sentiment in Victoria or on Vancouver Island. Whether or not he said so, we do not know, but if he did, it would be true in the sense that, while everyone on Vancouver Island desires to see a policy of railway development adopted, that feeling has not as yet taken such a shape that our representatives in the local legislature and the Dominion parliament could go to their respective governments and say to them that the people of this city and island were united and in earnest in a demand for a policy of railway development. The Colonist has worked pretty hard to develop such a sentiment, but it has always felt conscious that its efforts met with the sort of sympathy that might be described as platonic. This did not discourage it, for long experience has taught it that prolonged effort is usually necessary to arouse public opinion on any specific subject, especially when its attention is distracted by other matters. But a change has taken place. The Vancouver Island Development movement did what years of newspaper writing could not accomplish. It concentrated public opinion upon a single matter, and the more that matter was considered, the more evident it became that we must have railways, if we are to prosper as we should. How much the prolonged efforts of the Colonist have contributed to that result we do not know and do not greatly care. The important thing is that through-out the length and breadth of Vancouver Island there is a sentiment in favor of railway construction that can at any time be crystallized into such form that no one can ever again think that it does not seem to exist. We want to be perfectly fair to our representatives at Ottawa and in Victoria. We have criticised them in the past for not taking the leadership of public opinion in these matters. We are willing to accept the explanation that the time did not seem to them to be ripe for action. Let bygones be bygones in that regard. There is no use in harking back and talking about what might have been done. We are concerned now with what is to be done. If public opinion has not been ripe, it is certainly rapidly ripening now. We ask our local contemporaries all over the island to get together on this important question. We ask our public men to forget their political differences and unite in devising a policy that can be placed before governments, railway companies, and the public with some reasonable hope that it will be acceptable. We are not so many that we can afford to divide our forces. The political success of no individual is so important that the public welfare should be jeopardized on account of it. Anyway, let us take the railway question, for the present at least, absolutely out of politics, and work together until we accomplish something worth while.

AN INVESTIGATION.

We cannot say that we have any congratulations to offer Captain Gaudin upon the outcome of the investigation, for to offer them would, in a way, be to suggest that there was some reason for supposing that his reputation was for a single moment called in question. While the Commissioner, Lieut.-Col. Gregory, has not made public his report—which, indeed, he ought not to do until it has been submitted to the department—it is well known that the charges reflecting upon Captain Gaudin have been shown to be absolutely groundless. We have no fault to find with the government for ordering the investigation. Indeed, we understand that Captain Gaudin asked for it; but it was clearly the duty of the government to have inquired into the truth of the statements laid before it. In view of the disclosures that came to light in the East, it is unfortunately only too clear that years of good service and high personal respectability afford no guarantee that officials have not abused their positions. The government did perfectly right in taking nothing for granted in Captain Gaudin's case. He and his friends welcomed inquiry; and, although it must always be a painful thing for an old and tried officer to have his good faith called in question, such a complete vindication as our friend and neighbor has received compensates for it, especially at a time when there has been so much talk of malfeasance in office.

Just a word or two more in regard to Captain Gaudin. He is one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens. He has occupied a responsible official post for many years, and until the recent allegations were made, not a breath of scandal was ever associated with his name. We need not assure him that he yet holds the trust and respect of his fellow citizens, for he was never in the least danger of forfeiting them. We know that Colonist readers will join with us in wishing him many more useful years of official life.

PICNICKERS

"I'm sorry," said the teamster, "but I can't do it tomorrow, for you see I've promised my wife and children to go on a picnic." And with this best of all excuses, he said good night. Yesterday afforded many things well worth looking at. There on the corner stood a little party waiting for the car. There was a man, who evidently was one who earned his living with his hands. There was a woman, whose gentle, patient face told a story of home duties faithfully performed. There was a little girl, whose bright face shone with happy anticipations. They had two baskets, and it was plain that they were going on a picnic. On another corner stood a man and woman, husband and wife evidently enough. His flannels were spotless and beautifully creased where fashion calls for creases; her white dress was immaculate. They also had a basket, and "picnic" was written upon them as plainly as one could ask. On another corner were a girl and boy; at least they seemed to be a girl and boy until one caught sight of a little go-cart with a dainty mite of humanity in it, and sitting beside it was the inevitable basket. By and bye the car would come along, the girl mother would take the basket, the boy father would take the baby, and the conductor would roid up the go-cart and put it in a safe corner—perhaps he also had a wife and baby that he would like to take on a picnic. Here comes a car, and it seems to have nothing in it but babies, but you know that babies could not stand up alone and look out of the windows, and you are sure that somewhere in the car are fathers, mothers and baskets. When night came the cars were full again. The holiday clothes were a little the worse for the strenuous day. The babies were sleepy and a little inclined to be fretful, and here and there on the seats a sturdy little lad had tucked his head beneath his father's arm and slept as if he were a cherub, whereas in point of fact he was a mischievous little scamp, who had during the day left undone nothing that he ought not to have done. Strange, is it not, how sleep hallows the little fellows? It rests upon them like that peace that passeth understanding. Never think for a moment, tired mother, struggling to keep back the tears of her tired baby, never think tired father, who does not know what to do with the tired little boy, that the rest of us are impatient at your lack of success. Down in all of our hearts there is a feeling much like envy, and perhaps the reason why some of us look as if we were not quite pleased is because we are regretting the by-gone days that can never come back again.

DRAUGHT HORSES

The London Times has been discussing the question of draught horses and it seems greatly impressed with the popularity of Percherons in America, where they have attained a vogue, which they do not enjoy in any other part of the world. It contrasts these horses with the Clydes and Shires, and finds itself unable to account for the preference in the United States for the French stock. Possibly the explanation lies in the fact that for the purposes of the great majority of United States farmers the quick-moving Percheron is better than the slower Clyde or the sluggish Shire. The two great British families mentioned were bred to suit the conditions existing in Great Britain, and we take leave to doubt if breeders in the United Kingdom could hope, as the Times thinks they might, to compete with the Percherons in the United States market. While the Percheron has a French name and has a French origin, the American horse so classed is hardly to be considered a French product. Those who remember the first importations of Percherons will recall that they were very large and awkward animals, with a tendency to flat hoofs and round legs. They were what were then called Norman-Percherons, and they were the product of the quick-moving horses of Le Perche and the dull heavy mares of the low countries. American breeders have built up a type of horses from this stock, which is exceedingly useful, and during the last twenty years French breeders have endeavored to establish a class of Percherons, which would conform to what America wanted. The Percheron Stud Book is not yet a quarter of a century old. It was got up so that horses exported to America might have a stud-book number, and the first horses recorded in it were of widely different types. No. 1 was a typical horse of Le Perche. He weighed about 1,550 pounds, was compactly built, stood with his feet well under him, and had fine feet and flat legs; he walked quickly and liked to trot. No. 2 weighed nearly 2,000 pounds. He was long in body, had round legs, his feet had a tendency to flatness; he was soft and sluggish, resembling the Flemish mares. Both these horses came to America as representative Percherons. As a matter of fact, the Percheron stock had not been fully established twenty-five years ago, and it has really been brought to its present quality in America or through American influence.

The Clydes are a much older family than what is now called the Percheron, although the Stud-book is comparatively recent origin. The origin of the Clydes is from the crossing of Flemish and native stock. The Shire seems to be an indigenous product of certain parts of England. It is only about twenty years ago that Shire breeders thought it worth while to have a stud-book and they, like the breeders of Percherons and Clydes, got up the book for American use. Unlike the thoroughbreds, the draught horses, and with them may be included the so-called Suffolk Punch, which is a very much cross-bred animal, the Cleveland Bay and the Hackney do not represent families of horses, but only types. The thoroughbreds are all of kin to each other, although they may trace ultimately to one of three different ancestors, namely the Brierley Turk, the Darley Arabian and the Godolphin Arabian, three horses brought to England in the days of William and Mary. While these horses were not, as far as any one knows, in any way related to each other, their blood has been so intermixed that the thoroughbreds of today really form a separate family among horses. Just here it may be mentioned that the term "thoroughbred" is not correctly used when it is applied to any other horse than these, or any other stock. The proper expression to use, when a horse or other animal has been so bred that his type is established, is "pure bred."

The movement for the presentation of the case of Vancouver Island in the matter of railway development is likely to assume a very practical form.

The Kaiser declares that he is for peace. He is like the chairman of an eastern gathering, who said he was going to maintain parliamentary decorum, if he had to go down from the chair "and lick the whole bunch."

Congratulations to teachers and pupils on the beginning of the summer vacation. Good wishes to those who have spent their last day in school, and must now begin to find what the world has in store for them.

Lord Charles Berosford estimates that $300,000,000 will be needed to put the Royal Navy on a proper footing. This is a vast sum of money to be spent upon machines of war, which may be out of date before the last of them is ready to go into commission. But there seems to be no help for it.

Messina has had another severe shaking up. This illustrates what we said at the time of the awful calamity so fresh in every one's memory. Commenting upon the observations made at that time about the inexplicable course of the Creator in permitting the destruction of human life by earthquakes, we said what seemed more inexplicable to us, was that people would live in places known to be subject to death-bringing catastrophes.

Catch the motor speed fiends by all means, but remember that the chauffeur may not always be to blame for an accident. Yesterday a heavily loaded motor was rounding a corner at a slow speed, the chauffeur sounding his horn. A pedestrian crossed the road in front of the machine with the utmost deliberation, looking at the machine all the while and although he was only missed by a foot or two, he never quickened his pace in the slightest degree. If he had stumbled or anything had happened to cause him to pause, he would have inevitably been run over. The occupants of the car all assured the chauffeur that, if an accident had happened, he would have been blameless. A pedestrian has the right of way at street crossings, but that right does not extend to permitting him to get in the way of a passing vehicle.

Storm on Texas Coast
Brownsville, Texas, July 1.—Tarpon

DIVORCE IS GOOD
AFTER MANY YEARS

Olympia, July 1.—After forty-two years of uncertainty, Hanna Douglas has learned by a decision of the Supreme court that she is not the wife nor widow of the late H. L. Douglas, who died leaving valuable real estate in Spokane county. They were married in 1853 and separated in 1858, when he left the family home in Michigan and went to Illinois, where he brought suit for divorce on the grounds of desertion. A certificate of a clerk of court a few years later reflected that a divorce had been granted there, but now it is claimed the original decree never was signed. Mrs. Douglas brought this suit to establish her heirship to the Spokane property, claiming that she never knew of the divorce and asserting that it was void because the decree had never been signed and that it had been procured through fraud. The Supreme court holds that it is now too late for her to attack the divorce.

Establish Credit Bureau.
Washington, July 1.—Comptroller Murray today established a credit bureau, the object of which is to list large borrowers of banks and the lines of credit they obtain, also overloans and undue extensions of credit thereby keeping track of the conditions of weak banks.

Western Canada Wood Pulp &amp; Paper Co., Ltd.

HEAD OFFICE, 638 VIEW STREET, VICTORIA, B.C.

Plant under course of erection at Quatsino Sound, Vancouver Island.

ASSETS
The company have acquired 55,000 acres of Pulp Land on Quatsino Sound, Vancouver Island.

WATER POWER
In addition to the vast Pulp Limits acquired, the company have also secured a 20,000-inch water record on Marble creek, at Quatsino Sound, capable of developing from 10,000 to 15,000 h. p. This creek derives its source from three lakes, 20 miles in length, and is thus permanent the year round.

CAPACITY OF PLANT
The plant when fully complete will have a capacity of 600 tons of news and wrapping per week, and feel confident that we will have the pulp plant with a weekly capacity of 100 tons in operation by December 1st of this year.

COST OF MANUFACTURE
With our tremendous pulp limits which enable us to secure our pulp wood at a nominal figure and splendid water power, the cost of manufacture of news and wrapping paper should not exceed $30.00 per ton; at present news is jobbing in British Columbia at $60.00 per ton. The freight rate in carload lots from Ontario and Quebec being $17.00 per ton.

LOCAL MARKETS
The local market of the company extends east a thousand miles to Moose Jaw and tributary region. Within the above territory the annual consumption of paper is estimated at a thousand tons exclusive of that used by printers and newspapers. The five daily papers of Victoria and Vancouver alone consume over 100 carloads of paper per year.

FOREIGN MARKETS
The foreign markets of the company consist of China, Japan, New Zealand, Australia, Hawaii and the Philippines. In 1908 the above countries imported over $10,000,000 worth of wood pulp and paper, principally from Norway, Sweden, Germany, Eastern United States and Eastern Canada.

FREIGHT RATES TO ORIENT
A freight rate from $3.00 to $5.00 per ton can be secured from British Columbia to China, Japan, New Zealand and Australia, on wood pulp and paper, as against a rate of $7.00 to $15.00 per ton on the same commodities from Eastern Canada and Europe; being from 3,000 to 5,000 miles nearer the Oriental market than Eastern Canada or European mills, we not only are able to secure a much lower freight rate, but also a lower insurance rate.

NATURAL ADVANTAGES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA
News and wrapping paper are manufactured principally from Spruce, Hemlock, Balsam and Larch wood; one ton of chemical wood pulp requires approximately two cords of four-foot wood. At present Spruce and Hemlock wood is worth from $6.00 to $9.00 per cord in Eastern Canada; our facilities enable us to secure it at less than $3.00 per cord. In 1908 the American mills were obliged to pay from $3.00 to $15.00 per cord.

PROGRESS OF WORK
We are proceeding as fast as possible with the work. The erection of the plant has been placed under the exclusive supervision of Mr. Chas. B. Pride, of Appleton, Wis., one of the most distinguished authorities on the erection of pulp and paper mills in the United States, having built more than 50 of the leading mills of the country, and he is confident at being able to have the pulp mill in operation by December 1st of this year.

The robbery was reported to the police.

Excursion Arranged

The Sunday school picnic and excursion of the Church of Our Lord is arranged for the afternoon, next, July 3rd, in order to avoid the crush attendant on Dominion Day trips. The destination is Sidney, and arrangements are in hand for a good programme of sports, etc. The school will be open tomorrow, from 2 till 5.30 to receive gifts of refreshments, etc., for the picnic. Messrs. Hibbard, Government street; R. St. Day, Port street, and D. McTavish, Crescent grocery, have the tickets on sale.

Canon Beaulieu Ill.

Canon Beaulieu, according to advices received here, was taken ill in Liverpool while hurrying to the deathbed of his daughter, Mrs. Peacock, in Toronto. The reverend gentleman went east to North Bay upon word of the accident to his daughter. It was later thought that she was out of danger, and he then proceeded to the old country. There the news reached him of the fatal relapse. While hastening back to Canada, Canon Beaulieu was taken suddenly ill when about to sail. He is since somewhat better.

Attractive Publications.

One of the best gotten up railway publications of recent issue is that just presented by the passenger department of the Northern Pacific Railway, describing the famous Yellowstone Park. The booklet, entitled "Land of the Geysers," is a work of art, and as an example of artistic printing is of the very first order. Other booklets, equally attractive, are those relating to the attractions of the Minnesota Lakes and that describing the Flathead, Coeur d'Alene, and Spokane Indian Reservations, to be thrown open to homesteaders on July 15th.

Connection Not Feasible

Recently the proposition of extending the high pressure main along Store street from Herald street to connect with the high pressure system of the B. C. Electric Company, was made at a meeting of the streets, bridges and sewers committee, and the idea was approved of by the aldermen. Now it appears that, in the opinion of the city electrician, under whose direction the city's plant was installed, such a connection would not prove feasible. The actual idea was to extend the main down Store street in the direction of the mill district, but not to connect with the other plant, but the aldermen misunderstood the matter and recommended the connection. As a matter of fact the B. C. Electric Company's plant, in case of fire, gives a pressure of a little over 100 pounds per inch while the city plant is intended to stand a pressure of much more than that. The mains, when tested, were tested to 230 pounds per square inch. It is pointed out that should there be an alarm and the city's plant be worked to full pressure, a connection with the B. C. Electric plant would probably mean that the latter would be put out of business. It is likely that the extension of the main along Store street will be made, but there will be no connection with the company's plant.

Baptist Picnic

The members and friends of the First Baptist, with the Victoria West and Burnside Mission Sunday schools, spent a happy day at Macaulay Plains. Games of football, baseball, etc., were arranged by the sports committee, and during the afternoon, races were contested with keen interest. The following being the programme and winners:

STOOD BY WHILE DECKER KILLED

Eye Witnesses of Murder Made
No Attempt to Apprehend
Hold-up Man

That Special Constable Decker, killed near Ashcroft, on June 28, while attempting to arrest two men, whom the police authorities are convinced were two of the quartette of bandits who held up the C.P.R. train near Ducks, was murdered in plain view of persons who made no attempt to apprehend the murderer, but stood by while the murderer made good his escape along the railway track, is the gist of a report which Inspector McMillen of the Provincial Police has made to the department here.

The press reports of the killing of Decker were hardly correct. It was stated that Decker, as a boat containing two suspicious characters was proceeding down the Thompson river, called upon the men to stop and land. This they did, and the report goes on to state that as one of the men landed he fired at Decker, who, however, shot him dead, whereupon the second occupant of the boat pulled a revolver and killed the policeman. According to Inspector McMillen's report, the men in the boat in response to Decker's command, landed, and as one of the pair advanced towards Decker, he pulled a revolver and exclaiming, "Do you think you can take me?" fired, hitting the officer in the groin. Badly wounded, Decker, who was armed with a rifle, fired, hitting the man full on the chin, instantly killing him, whereupon the second bandit fired a shot from a shot gun, instantly killing Decker. Decker's murderer landed from the boat, and stooping down as he passed his dead comrade, he picked up something from the body, and then started to leisurely walk up the railway track in an easterly direction. The shooting was witnessed by some persons near the scene, but they were unarmed, or too afraid to attempt to stop the retreating highwayman. At any rate, the latter made his escape.

A search of the boat disclosed a few provisions, a grip containing clothes and a few photographs, and a number of sticks of dynamite, in packages similar to those found by Chief Constable Fernie at the scene of the hold-up near Ducks, and also some shot gun cartridges similar to cartridges picked up there.

Planned Another Robbery.

When the boat was first seen coming down the Thompson river it contained three men, but when Constable Decker, at Ashcroft, who had been instructed to be on the look out for it, saw the boat and attempted to arrest the men, there were but two occupants. From the fact that one man had disembarked somewhere up the river from Ashcroft, and from the presence of dynamite, the authorities believe that it was the intention of the trio to commit another hold-up, the man left behind to pave the way for the escape of the other two.

Inspector McMillen outlines the steps taken to cover the country in the chase after the fugitives, who, he believes, cannot possibly escape; but though the whole country side is being scoured by police, mounted police, and settlers, no word had been received, up to a late hour last night, indicating that the perpetrators of the hold-up or the murderer of Decker have been rounded up.

That the authorities are determined to capture the desperadoes is evidenced from the fact that in addition to the $7,500 reward, $5,000 offered by the C.P.R. and $2,500 by the provincial government, another $2,500 had been offered by the provincial government for the apprehension of Decker's murderer. A description of the murderer was secured. His name is unknown, but he is described as being tall and stout, of red complexion, clean shaven, and wearing a dirty white shirt and an old light-colored Stetson hat.

Trail is Lost.

The trail of the man who killed Decker was followed by blood hounds for five or six miles to an old disused mine, where it was thought that he and the other two bandits might be hiding. The mine was surrounded and searched, but no trace of the outlaws could be discovered. The hounds could not pick up the further trail, and the Indians trackers were at fault. But with the certain knowledge that Decker's murderer, at least, is in the immediate vicinity of the shooting, the authorities are convinced that he will be unable to get away. Lacking provisions, and surrounded on all sides, it will be only a matter of a short time before the murderer must be cornered.

GUARDING AGAINST FOREST FIRES

Provincial Government Appoints Assistant Fire Warden in Island Districts

The appointment of a number of assistant fire wardens in the different districts of the island and mainland, whose duties will be to co-operate with the district fire wardens in all cases of apprehended or real danger, is a method again adopted this year by the Lands Department of the Provincial Government as a further safeguard against forest and brush fires. The object of the move is to have as large a portion of forest as possible under supervision. The appointees are all practical lumbermen and woodsmen, are entirely in sympathy with forest protection, and on this account should render invaluable aid, not only in forestalling the danger of outbreaks, but also in assisting in the fighting of forest fires. The districts to be controlled, and the assistant will make regular reports to the district fire wardens.

The following appointments of assistant fire wardens have been made: Alberni-Barcelay fire district: E. L. Gill, Alberni; E. Granby, Nanaimo; R. B. Brown, Ucluelet; T. Harvey, Long Beach, Clayoquot; G. Sorenson, Quatsino.

Comox fire district: George Howe, Hornby Island; Abraham Pickles, Denman Island; Alexander Cowie, Union Bay; William Roy, Cumberland; Frank Dallos, Cumberland; Samuel Calhoun, Sandwick; Richard Hargreaves, Campbell River; G. V. Joyce, Quathlaski Cove; Chas. J. Allen, Whaletown, Cortes Island; Dan McDonald, Mansons, Cortes Island; Martin Norman, E. Granby, S. Brown, Road Island; Ellis Johnson, Salmon River; A. M. Lyon, Hardy Bay.

Cowichan Station: H. S. Caylin, Duncan; Philip Carvell, Cowichan Station; T. P. Barry, Cobble Hill; A. Reid, Cowichan Station; P. Auchanachie, Duncan. In addition to the above for Cowichan district, P. O'Parrell, superintendent of construction of the Mill Bay road has been appointed an Assistant Fire Warden, as the large amount of clearing and burning at this point rendered such an appointment necessary.

For the Gulf Islands, the following have been appointed: J. Nightingale, North Salt Spring; A. F. Akerman, South Salt Spring; E. Pollard, Pender Island; A. Murchison, Galiano Island; J. W. Bennett, Mayne Island; D. C. Convey, Gabriola Island; W. Hunter, Thetis and Kuper Islands; Alfred Raynes, Wharfedale, South Salt Spring.

For Esquimalt district: H. Neld, Metehosin; J. S. Muir, Sooke; W. Phillips, Sooke; H. Pike, Millstream; W. Dunn, Sooke; D. M. Robertson, Victoria, West.

For Renfrew district: A. Deakin, Port Renfrew.

For Nanaimo district: John Love, Nanaimo; D. A. McMillan, Parksville; J. M. Roberts, Nanaimo; J. R. Roblin, Wellington; W. A. Hamilton, Van Anda; Donald Ferguson, Cedar District; William Carmichael, Ladysmith; D. C. Convey, Gabriola Island.

KEEPING TAB ON CRIMINALS

Local Detective Department
Has Installed Up-to-date
System

"Mugs" galore, some two thousand in all, giving the features of that number of crooks, suspects and individuals wanted by the police authorities of this and other cities, form an interesting exhibit at the local police station.

Recently a new system of preserving the photographs, or as such are known in the parlance of the police "mugs," has been installed in the local detective office and Detective Sergeant Percival states that while there are other cities where the collections of photographs are bigger, there are few where the system followed in preserving and cataloguing is more perfect.

The "mug" cabinet has been rearranged and added to and now every photograph is in readiness to be turned up in an instant. Fourteen volumes of albums, the latest style to be adopted by police departments, have been added to the department here and the photographs are so arranged that the features and at the same time the description of the criminals can be seen at a glance. A complete index is appended.

In addition, the past ten years' volumes of the publication called "The Detective" the official organ of the police departments of Canada and the United States, have been bound and indexed. These volumes give the photographs and records of practically every criminal known to the police of both countries and furnish a unique addition to aids in criminal investigation.

CANADA KEEPS BACK SETTLEMENT

Fails to Enlist British Action in Pelagic Sealing Question

Sixteen months ago in the Dominion House of Commons Sir Wilfrid Laurier stated that the question of the status of British pelagic sealers in the Bering Sea was engaging the attention of the government. Since then the Dominion government has not succeeded in bringing about a settlement, has, as far as can be gathered, failed even to communicate with the British government, and while the other nations interested, namely Russia, Japan, and the United States, are negotiating for a conference on the question, Canada, which is most interested, is to all intents and purposes inept.

For many years the question of the Alaskan seal fisheries has been a burning one. The negotiations alluded to above were initiated by the United States government, the question having become one of urgency owing to the depletion of the seal herd by the action of Japanese sealers, who are not restricted in their operations, as are the sealers of Canada, the United States and Russia.

In the proposed conference the participation of Great Britain depends upon the view held by Canada. Rumor has it that the Dominion government is now negotiating with Washington trying to obtain satisfactory assurances of the nature of the compensation to be offered in the event of Canadian sealing being stopped. This, according to information which has reached London, is the present status of the question, and meantime close upon forty Canadian sealers are lying idle in the harbor here, representing hundreds of thousands of dollars capital. Local sealing interests cannot understand why the Dominion authorities do not enter into direct communication with Great Britain. Were this done they state that the question would be settled in a few months. Meantime the sealing herds are being decimated and Japan is gleaming all the spoils.

The following statement was made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the Canadian House of Commons on February 25th, 1908:

"As to the status of British pelagic sealers in the Pacific ocean, our position in this respect," said Sir Wilfrid, "is very unsatisfactory. At the present rate of killing the whole seal herd will be destroyed in five years by the Japanese, who are free from the restrictions imposed on British sealers. Under the circumstances, what is to be done? It has been suggested that Canada should approach the United States with a view to restricting and preventing the killing of seals on land. This is a matter which may come up for negotiations between Canada, Great Britain, the United States, perhaps, other nations. But I may say that the matter is now engaging the attention of the present government. More than that I cannot say at present."

AGREEMENT UP BEFORE COUNCIL

If Electric Company Accepts
Terms Bylaw Will Be Dealt With Tonight

Prior to tonight's regular weekly meeting of the streets, bridges and sewers committee a special meeting of the city council will be held when among other matters up for consideration the agreement between the city and the B. C. Electric Company relative to the development of the Jordan river power project and tramway extensions will be dealt with.

The drift agreement, as approved by the city, has been sent to Vancouver in order that one or two changes may be considered by the company. It is not expected that the changes made in the agreement at the suggestion of the city barrister will be objected to by the company. If the company accepts the agreement as passed by the city the necessary bylaw incorporating the agreement will be submitted to the ratepayers at an early date.

Just so soon as the ratepayers give their approval of the arrangement negotiated between the city and the company work on the construction of the plant to develop not less than 10,000 horse power at a cost of $1,500,000 will be commenced at Jordan river.

SLIGHT ACCIDENT TO E. & N. TRAIN

Defective Wheel Throws Tender Off Rails and Damages
Roadbed

Loosened bolts holding the flange of one of the rear wheels on the tender of engine 458, hauling the E. & N. excursion train, which left the city yesterday morning at 11 o'clock bound for Goldstream, occasioned a slight accident, which held up the train for about twenty-five minutes, put the engine out of commission and did considerable damage to the roadbed. Beyond a slight shock to the passengers, no inconvenience was experienced by the excursionists.

The defect to the wheel threw the rear truck of the tender off the track, the wheels ploughing up the ties and roadbed for a distance of about twenty yards, bringing the train to a stop just as it was passing the switch at Langford Station. The coupling between the tender and the baggage car was broken.

The engine of an inbound excursion train was requisitioned and after running the outbound train back to the next switch, the two trains were coupled and run out to Goldstream. The injured tender was jacked up and repaired at Langford all day. As the accident occurred at a switch, no delay to traffic was occasioned, incoming and outgoing trains passing on the switch.

OPERATION HER ONLY CHANCE

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lindsay, Ont.—"I think it is no more than right for me to thank Mrs. Pinkham for what her kind advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. When I wrote to her some time ago I was a very sick woman, suffering from female troubles. I had inflammation of the female organs, and could not stand or walk any distance. At last I was confined to my bed, and the doctor said I would have to go through an operation, but this I refused to do. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now, after using three bottles of it, I feel like a new woman. I most heartily recommend this medicine to all women who suffer with female troubles. I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and think they are fine."—Mrs. FRANK EMBLEY, Lindsay, Ontario.

We cannot understand why women will take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, without first trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

Here and There

Dominion Day is fast becoming, if it has not already become, as popular a holiday in Victoria as the twenty-fourth. The difference is that everybody goes out of town to enjoy it. And yesterday was an ideal day for an outing. Every tram and train and boat was crowded with holiday makers. Houses were locked up and fathers, mothers and children started off to the woods or seashore to spend the day together. It was a pretty sight to see the delight of the little ones, and the happiness of fathers and mothers as with great picnic baskets, they took their seats in the trams. Girls in the freshest and prettiest of frocks and young men in holiday garb, were to be seen after the old, old fashion going off on excursions or on visits to distant friends. The tram cars were laden with noisy rollicking Sunday school children in their way to the various picnic grounds. Only the waving flags told of the reason of the holiday. Yet all will come back better Canadians for the long summer day spent under the shade of the pines or on the beach where the fresh breezes brought them health and vigor.

In an address delivered before the International Council of Women, Mrs. Mary Wright Sewall, a distinguished American lady, advocated the teaching of unbiased history in the schools. Nothing shows the extent to which old prejudices have disappeared more than the anxiety of historians to tell the true story of the events which have taken place in the growth of the nations of the world. The infinite pains which is taken to discover the original documents which throw light upon the life of the past by modern historians is not always appreciated by those who read so easily, the pages in which Carlyle, Green, Parkman and many other great historians compress the work of years of research. Such work is rendering impossible the biased accounts which have formerly done duty for history.

As true light is shed upon the past, we learn that those who played their part were real men, great indeed, but not heroes, nor the monsters of iniquity, we have been accustomed to consider them. The work of writing the history of the United States has begun and when it is completed, many of the prejudices which the two great branches of the English speaking people will speedily disappear.

For these prejudices have been kept alive by the teaching that has been given the children in the American schools. Nothing is a better sign of the times than the dying out of old legends and bitterness and the women, who like Miss Sewall, are pleading for the teaching of the truth about the past are doing the best kind of woman's work.

The importance of history as a study cannot be greatly over-rated. We have heard much during the past few days of character building. It is the history lesson that the teacher has the greatest of opportunity of impressing upon the young, the beauty and the power of goodness. There is no other study, if we except that of literature that compares with it in importance and its purpose. The great men and women of the past can be made to live again by the enthusiastic teacher and their example has a power for good or a warning against evil, which no moral lectures, however, eloquent, possess. For this teaching, the children are too young and the field to select from is wide. The mother who tells her children Bible stories on Sundays, or at bedtime, begins it and it is easy to carry it on after the children enter upon school life. It is such a wide field to select from that the only difficulty is in making a wise choice.

But as the boys and girls grow older and are preparing for the duties of life, history has other work to do. It is the story of the growth of nations and it is to its pages, that we must turn for lessons in patriotism, and for guidance in the work of citizenship. The little children may learn the story of the lives of great men and the dates and facts which can be so easily impressed while the memory is retentive but the great lessons which history has to teach concerning citizenship, the duties of a citizen, are for more mature minds. If we are to have wise and good statesmen, and if the Canadians of the future are to be true patriots, then in every high school and college in the country youths and maidens must study the growth of England and of her colonies, and the characters of the great men who have brought about this development.

Miss Edith A. Barnett, who is described as an English novelist, delivered an address before the International Council of Women on the "Moral, Educational and Social Effects of Woman's Entrance into Professional Careers." Miss Barnett thinks that it is impossible for a woman to follow a profession, and to be a good wife and mother at the same time. She thinks that the professional woman in England has been successful. Miss Barnett was brave to stand before the array of doctors, and other ladies with letters after names and disown professionalism. And really, from the report of her address, it is hard to see why it should be more reprehensible to be a lawyer or a doctor or, for that matter, an author, than to be a saleswoman or a factory girl. Miss Barnett believes that independence keeps women from marrying. This is no doubt true, but it may be questioned whether a woman ought to marry in order that her husband may support her. There is an old-fashioned idea that love is the only foundation for a happy marriage and, in this country at least, the fact that a woman is well educated is no guarantee that she will not fall a victim to the arrows of the blind god.

Miss Barnett does not believe that a woman can be at once a good wife and mother and a useful professional woman. In this almost all will agree though even in this new country there are instances where a mother's duty has called her to return to the sphere she occupied before her marriage. In the old days when her husband failed to realize the promise of his youth his wife was obliged to suffer poverty, and her children, too, often fell into the degradation that accompanies it. That now the wife of the unfortunate, or it may even be, the vicious husband is able to support her children in respectability is not altogether to be deplored. The truth seems to be that in these days there are many more avenues of employment open to women than formerly. The world wants their work and each will go where she is most needed, and take up the calling for which she is best fitted. If each does her duty as she sees it, no great evil will befall the world because of the work she tries or fails to do. It is from the foolish, the thoughtless, the idle and the selfish women of the world that the misfortunes of Miss Barnett fears are likely to spring, and not from the workers whether they labor in the laboratory or at desk or factory.

LADY GRAY'S SPEECH

Lady Gray visited the International Council last week and made the following speech:

"Ladies,—As honorary president of the Canadian National Council of Women, it is my privilege to associate myself with Lady Edgar in offering a cordial welcome in the name of the women of Canada, to you the delegates from over seas, and especially to Lady Aberdeen, our admirable and invaluable president of the International Council, on this the occasion of your first official visit to the Dominion.

"You come at a time when the greatness of our Canadian destiny is assured to us, and yet at a time when the lines of our national development are not so stereotyped as to prevent our adoption of the best methods of social organization as may be suggested by the experience of other countries.

"We realize that it is in our power, if we have sufficient knowledge and sufficient heart to apply that knowledge, to eliminate from the life of the Dominion much of the preventable waste, disease and death, which together constitute such an appalling annual loss, exceeding indeed that sustained by countries liable to be engaged in actual warfare.

"No less do we realize that the future happiness of our people largely depends on the degree in which the softening influences of art and culture enter into and illumine their lives, and we are glad to be given this opportunity of learning from our visitors what life, art and culture should mean and training we should adopt, with the view of acquiring for our people that love of beauty and handcraft dexterity which will enable them to make their homes, both in the rural districts and in the towns, more and more the respective centres of contented happiness and competing art and beauty."

Care of the Eyes

For one who values his eyes it is a

CHANGING SENTIMENT

Oliver Goldsmith's "Deserted Village."

Goldsmith in his "Deserted Village," spoke of a certain chapel where those who "went to scoff, remained to pray." So in life one often laughs at what he does not understand and later, when he does understand, his laugh turns to praise. There were some who doubted the merits of Newbro's "Herpicide," the scalp germicide and hair dressing; but since they have tried it, they are now among its best friends and strongest endorsers. Herpicide kills the germ that causes the hair to fall out and the hair then grows again. As a hair dressing it is incomparable, try it. Sold by leading druggists. good rule to do nothing which depends upon sight unless one can clearly see what one is doing. Hence, reading should never be attempted in an inadequate, unsteady or intermittent light. How little this basic truth is understood and appreciated is illustrated by the surprising indifference of the community to the way in which public conveniences are lighted. For example, not long ago I rode uptown on one of the busiest and best equipped of the surface lines. The car was electrically lighted, but between City Hall and Seventy-second street the lights went out fifty-one times. Nearly every person in the car was trying to read a newspaper or had pockets stuffed with those he wanted to read. At some points of the run, at crossings and occasionally where there seemed to be no obvious reason for it, the alternations between brilliant illumination and darkness were frequent and rapid.

The effect of this upon eyes, even if one was wise enough not to try to read, was very trying, unfitting them for use until thoroughly rested by sleep. This is wholly unnecessary, and would not be permitted if we really cared what our public service corporations do to us. A method of correcting the trouble in the lighting of cars which take the current from the power conductor and transform it for an incandescent circuit was found more than ten years ago, but as it did not promise increased earnings and was not demanded by public opinion, it was not adopted.

The money value of eyes impaired or ruined by intermittent car lighting is many times greater than that of all the rolling stock of all the railways combined. Like results are apt to follow in the case of those who seek amusement in picture shows. To sit for half an hour watching one of these flickering shadowgraphs makes the strongest eyes ache.

When to see what one is reading, or doing, or needs to look at requires conscious muscular effort of the eyes, it is a good rule to give the eyes the benefit of the doubt. If the work is of a kind which permits it, the eyes should be rested by closing them. One who has never tried this simple expedient will be surprised how much the nervous strain and brain-fatigue are thus avoided.

Smoking, especially when reading or at work and when the head is held in such position that smoke gets into the eyes and irritates them, is very hurtful. If there is no other way to avoid this than to give up smoking, a wise man should not long hesitate as to his duty and interest.

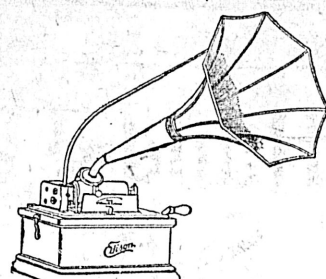

Glasses should be worn as soon as needed. If assumed soon enough they often correct in normal eyes the need for them. With abnormal eyes they are indispensable if the person thus impaired would do normal work. One of the rules which admit of formulation in the words of the old proverb is: "If you need glasses get the best obtainable. The man with a good watch, worth say, $100, would not surrender it to a tinkler or blacksmith to repair. Why should he trust his eyes to a quack or charlatan, or seek expert advice from a tradesman who sells spectacles and pretends to fit them? One good eye is worth more than the best watch ever made."

If irritating particles get into the eye have them at once removed, using for this purpose a camel's hair or fitch brush with a fine point, such as is used in water color painting. A whitish mark on the eye is an impossible implement, and even the twisted corner of a handkerchief is much too harsh and may do serious injury. It is wise to remember that not in one case in probably ten thousand is an impairment of the eyes stick which is corrected or quite recovered from.—Dr. J. C. Bayles, in New York Globe.

She Had Seen Enough.

Marion was a little American girl of six years. For three months her mother and aunt had dragged her through the museums and art galleries of Europe. She was made to look at the slippers of Marie Antoinette, the prayer-book of Catherine de Medici, hats of Napoleon and endless numbers of uninteresting Madonnas. These her mother told her constantly, she must remember, for when she grew up she would realize how famous they were. At last Marion rebelled. She refused to go to a world-famed museum. After much persuasion, she yielded upon one condition. "I'll go any place you like," she said, "if you'll promise never again to make me look at anything famous."

SKIDOO NUMBER

Battling Nelson's lucky number is "23."

Like nearly all fighters, the lightweight champion is superstitious. The famed "skidoo number" he looks upon as the one best bet for keeping hoodoos, jinx and other evil spirits out of his path to the top of the pugilistic heap.

Nelson is a raving bug on the number "23." That's his room number at the Fairmont. That has been his room number in a thousand hotels all over this and a few other countries. He always asks for it, and is disappointed when some one else has beaten him to it.

Nelson has twenty-three girls, but the only one he worries about is the much-talked-of "forty-million-dollar kid" who, by the way, is just 23 years of age.

Nelson owns exactly twenty-three pieces of real estate in the United States. His laundry mark is "23." In one of the compartments of his wallet he carries a $20 bill surrounded by three $1 bills, so as to always have the number with him. He prefers to travel on the 23rd of the month, and would postpone an important trip a whole week in order to start on that day. He has given two banquets at which the guests numbered twenty-three exactly. Incidentally, he beat Dick Hyland in twenty-three rounds.

When he sailed for the old country he had stateroom "23," and he figures that during his ring career his punches have extracted "23" teeth. "If I only die on the 23rd of some month," says the Battler, "I'll die happy."

New Athletic Director.

Ann Arbor, Mich., July 1.—Phillip G. Bartheleme, of Chicago, was today placed on the rolls of the University of Michigan as athletic director, succeeding Director Baird.

JOCKEY CLUB RULING MAY AFFECT AMERICANS

London, July 1.—The jockey club today adopted the following ruling: "No weight shall be allotted to any horse in a handicap until he has run three times in the United Kingdom."

The above ruling means that Jack Joyner and other American trainers must start their charges three times in condition races before they can enter them in a handicap.

Although the ruling is rather sweeping, it doesn't seem at this distance that the rule applies to the big handicaps already closed. If it does it means that the unbeaten Colin and Triscillian and the crack Ballot are practically ineligible in all the handicaps they are already entered in.

New York, July 1.—The action of the British Jockey Club today in adopting a rule of not allotting weights to any horse in a handicap for the first time in the big English handicaps were allotted extreme imposts and far in excess of the scale of weights in the country. The English handicapper having only the foreign record of the entries to base his calculations on naturally imposed a heavy impost such as has frequently been done when foreign horses have entered in American races for the first time. It was stated today that no foreign owner could object to a rule which permitted the handicapper to get a fair rating on a new entrant on the English turf.

U. S. OPEN GOLF TITLE GOES TO CANADIAN

George Sargent, Who Won at Englewood Last Week, Hails From Ottawa

The recent victory of George Sargent in the United States open golf championship played at Englewood, N. J., last week, is in reality a victory for Canada, for although entered from the Hyde Manor Club of Sudbury, Vt., Sargent has for several years past been prominent in Canadian golf.

Sargent won the fourteenth annual open golf championship of the United States over the Englewood Club's links by four strokes, his medal play total at 72 holes being 290.

The outcome could not have been more surprising. Sargent, a year ago, was unable to qualify for the second day's play in the same event.

He is an Englishman who began as a caddy abroad and has lived in Ottawa, Canada, for several years. He is counted with Dominion players and the feeling is that the title has really gone to Canada. He played a consistent game throughout. In order he made 75, 72, 72 and 71.

MAINLAND BOYS HOT CONTENDERS HOWEVER

Game Up to Usual Standard Set by Title Holders in Every Detail

Vancouver, July 1.—The New Westminster world's champions made it three straight over Vancouver in the series for the championship of the British Columbia lacrosse association and the Minto cup at Recreation Park yesterday afternoon, before the largest crowd that ever attended a lacrosse match in this city. The Salmon-bellies had even more trouble subduing the Terminal City representatives than they had with Tecumseh's, and only a one goal margin separated the teams at the finish. It was a heavy scoring game, no less than 15 goals being chalked up. New Westminster had 8 and the home talent 7.

It was a magnificent exhibition of lacrosse. The teams cut out the rough stuff upon the request of Chief of Police Chamberlin, who strolled on the field before the game with his aide, Inspector Mulhern, and gave the players a warning. The result was one of the prettiest exhibitions of the national game that could well be imagined. The teams were very closely matched, and as the Vancouverians had the speed to stay with the Royals, there was something doing every minute. Keen rivals as they are, the players managed to control themselves admirably and though they were battling fiercely all the route, the penalty list was surprisingly small. Only three players were benched during the game, and they were sent off for minor offences. Waldo Matheson and Clarkson, of the Vancouverians, and George Rennie, of the Westminsters, were the offenders. Three of the Westminister's goals were scored while Matheson was a spectator, while Vancouver scored once while Rennie enjoyed the scenery.

Action Begins Quickly. Right from the face-off the game was fast and furious, and the result was in doubt to the finish. The defenses did great work in the first period, and though both homes were working splendidly, there was no score at all during the quarter. At this stage it looked as though there would be little doing in the scoring line, but after the restart the defenses opened up, and for the balance of the game the home players were very much in the lime-light. Eight goals were scored in the second quarter, and the teams split even on them. Vancouver took the lead three times only to have the champions come back and tie it up. Finally Westminister went to the front, but just at the sound of the gong for the end of the quarter, O'Brien scored for Vancouver, making the half time count four all.

The teams persisted in their scoring streak during the third quarter. Vancouver got two in a row, Lalonde netting the ball after some splendid combination with O'Brien. With a healthy lead of two goals at this juncture, the supporters of the Vancouverians were fairly bubbling over with enthusiasm but the joy was short-lived. The New Westminster home livened up, while the Vancouver defence seemed to go up in the air and three straight goals for Westminister practically decided the issue right there.

Last Quarter Close When the teams went on the field for the last quarter, the score was 7 to 6 in favor of New Westminster, and twenty seconds later it was 8 to 6, Cliff Spring scoring in one of those characteristic Westminister rushes from the face-off. But the Vancouverians were not beaten and after George Rennie was sent off, redoubled their exertion, Allen finally scoring at the middle of the quarter. With only one goal down the prospects were very bright for Vancouver yet nothing the Royals did not have any great difficulty in getting on Gibbons. Westminister had two changes from the team which beat Tecumseh for the cup, Wintermute and Bryson sitting in favor of Latham and Grumpy S.

Gordon Spring, that made four pairs of brothers on the Westminister lineup.

RACE TRACK TOUTS GIVEN THE BOUNCE

Ogden, July 1.—A special train of thirty-eight cars of racing stock for the track meeting that left Salt Lake City at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon was held up at Woods' Cross for two hours by Special Agent Joe Jones and his staff of railroad secret service men, in order to weed out and "ditch" a horde of racing touts and track crooks and followers who were beating their way to Montana on the train.

Every car in the train was inspected, and $184 in fares collected from those who were not entitled to transportation with the different racing stables represented on the train. Some of the track hangers-on endeavored to bluff the officers, and various threats of gun-play were made, but these were promptly called by the secret service men, and the headstrong tourists were forced to yield the price or get off the train.

As a result of this inspection the special train did not arrive at Ogden until nearly eight o'clock last night, and the train was closely guarded until it pulled out for the North a little later.

CLASSY YEARLINGS SELL VERY CHEAP

Sheephead, July 1.—A two days' sale of yearlings belonging to various studs was concluded at Sheephead Bay today. Sixty-two youngsters were sold, bringing a total of $27,375. A chestnut colt by Orlando Caesar I. was bought by the Newcastle stables for $1,500. T. J. Nolan paid $1,300 for a colt by King-St. Yrene and a chestnut colt by Star Shoot-Kentucky Belle II. went to T. Collins for $1,000.

FAMOUS HORSE IS RETIRED TO STUD

Oraculum, Son of Sorcerer and Hanoverine, in Charge by Canadian Bureau

Montreal, July 1.—The Canadian National Bureau of Breeding has despatched to the Baron de la Rue du Can, Ste. Rose du Lac, Manitoba, the thoroughbred stallion Oraculum. Oraculum is a son of Sorcerer and Hanoverine and is a particularly bright stud prospect. He was bred by J. L. Hagin, and foaled in 1904. No better blood lines are to be found in any American pedigree, and coupled with the fact that he is a magnificent individual himself, he has all that would be required to make him an ideal sire. Sorcerer, his sire, is an imported horse and a son of the mighty Ormonde out of Crucible. The mare, herself, the dam of many good ones, is a daughter of King Alfonso and Crucifix, winner of the Oaks. Through Crucifix he goes to Lexington, by Boston, and the dam of Lexington was a Cleeve mare, being by that famous sire out of Lightstone and the daughter of Levity. This much for the male line which Oraculum springs.

Ormonde Well Known

As for Ormonde, the sire of Sorcerer, he needs no introduction to the students of blood lines. To trace to the son of Bend Or and Lily Agnes is enough for the most exacting breeding sharp. It goes to the Stockwell family, one of the most prized of English strains. On his dam's side the line traces back to the same families and is equally good.

It is impossible to pick a flaw with such blood lines and at present there is no more fashionable bred horse on this side of the Atlantic than this same big handsome Oraculum. Blood lines are always of the greatest importance in selecting a stud, but individuality frequently counts for almost as much. There have been bad sons of good ancestors, just as there have been good sons of mediocre parentage. Fortunately Oraculum combines a magnificent personality with his sterling blood lines. A horse of excellent size and conformation he shows many of the qualities that could be expected from such fashionable parentage and his racing career was decidedly creditable, as he always showed himself to be a wonderfully consistent performer. He was one of the best horses raced by George M. Odum, and early in his two-year-old career he had paid for himself many times over.

Oraculum was not raced much after his three-year-old season, and was retired full of vigor, and a horse that had thoroughly established himself by its deeds. His speed was never questioned and his performance in the Dixie left no doubt of either his stamina or his courage. These attributes are all that could be asked for in an individual who has size, conformation and peerless blood lines, to make him a much sought after sire.

WILL BASEBALL BLACK CAT COME BACK

Some call "Doc" Newton the "cat" of baseball. He always "colnes back." Newton is in Toronto with Joe Kelley's Eastern league team. But is he there to stay? Will Newton be back with the New York Highlanders in 1910.

These questions are being asked by fans in Gotham. Newton has had a career like many prize fighters, having everything but the knockout punch.

Four times has Newton returned to the majors from the business. He was more promising on each return than on the departure.
It's just about an even money bet that he'll be back in little old New York about February 25, 1910.

Saturday the J. B. A. A. nine will go to Port Angeles to play ball against the nine of that town. An excursion is being run for the occasion and a big crowd of locals will make the trip.

HARVARD WINS FROM OLD ELI

Crimson Crew Defeats Blue and White in Annual Rowing Feature on Thames

POWER AND ENDURANCE ACCOUNT FOR VICTORY

Yale Crew Unable to Stand Steady Grind of Long Race and Lose

New London, July 1.—In a grand exhibition of rowing, with a crew remarkable for its physical power and endurance, Harvard won her second consecutive boat race from Yale in twenty-eight years.

The record of the race at least 40,000 spectators witnessed the race. Although Harvard won by a handsome margin and administered a crushing defeat to the crews at the miles, there was a contest right up to the last half mile. All the way up the river the two eights rowed with almost equal precision, though the crimson made two strokes, and sometimes three, to the minute more than Yale.

Win Is Gradual

Harvard thus crept away from Yale little by little. For two and a half miles Yale kept within a scant boat's length of her Cambridge rival, then Harvard put on her four lengths and finally five and six lengths. Yale spurred with their old-time determination, but it was in vain.

The record of the race as kept by the official timers was as follows:
Harvard, one mile 5:10; 2 miles, 10:45; 3rd mile, 16:10; 4th mile 21:50. Yale, one mile 5:12; two miles 10:48; three miles 16:20; four miles 22:10.
Winning distance six lengths. The stroking of the crews at the miles follows: Harvard Start 39, one mile 34, two miles 34, three miles 35, finish 36. Yale, start 38, on mile 31, two miles 32, three miles 34, finish 36.

S. LANGFORD WOULD FIGHT THEM ALL

New York, July 1.—Sam Langford and his manager, Joe Woodman, have arrived here on the Cunarder Lusitania.

"I am ready to fight any man in the world—Johnson, Ketchel or Kaufman preferred, with Jeffries barred," said Langford on coming ashore. "I'm after Ketchel as well as Johnson. When they fight next October, I will challenge the winner and bet $10,000 on the fight if that amount is agreeable. I will fight Kaufman forty-five rounds at Colma whenever Coffroth says the word. I am in better condition than ever and feel I can beat any man in the ring today, barring Jeffries."

Woodman declared Langford "could whip them all," and would win the championship of the world.

SHORT. SNAPPY SPORT

North Wards defeated the Vancouver Juniors on the mainland grounds yesterday by a score of 3 to 1. The local twelve are certainly the best juniors got together in these parts for some time, and it will take a lot of time to take their measure. Russ Humber managed the North Wards on the mainland trip and to him is due much credit in supporting the Wards as he was instrumental in having the money raised locally to defray the junior champions' expenses. The North Ward line-up is as follows: Goal, Humber; point, Sweeney; cover, Dakers; first defence, Noel; second defence, Kelly; third defence, Brynjolfsson; centre, Hodgeson; third home, Menzies; second home, McCarter; first home, McDonald; outside, Johnson; inside, McGregor.

Kasey's Beacon Hill team lost to the Cloverdales of Vancouver on the Cambie street grounds yesterday. The Beacon Hill nine put up a hard fight against the speedy Vancouver nine and after an exciting battle it was decided that the Beacon Hill's were to be the winners. The Beacon Hill's turned the tables on any of the local grounds.

The gate receipts at the recent Minto Cup games between New Westminster and the Tecumseh's, of Toronto, were very good considering that one was a midweek game. Following is the total of the amount that each team received: First game, $3,231.10; second game, $3,067.15; total, $6,298.25. Expenses, $419.20; net $5,879.05. Each team received $2,939.53.

The Vancouver lacrosse fans are still saying that the mainland twelve can defeat the second team of Beacon Hill. They have to go some as most Westminister bears don't like to feel the sting of defeat and will put up a hard battle before they can be outclassed.

July Fourth the Cloverdale nine will journey to Sidney to play a game with the team of that town. The local line-up for that day have not yet been announced but the team will be selected from E. Speed, Oille Speed, Owen, Peltier, Hancock, Labe, Bruce, Morrison, Dakers, Kelly, McGregor, Rogers and Dutts. When these two teams line-up there will certainly be something doing in Sidney as both teams are evenly matched.

Stanley Ketchel is now a 10 to 6 favorite over Billy Papke for the big mile on July 5th. It would be a big surprise to Pacific coast fans if Papke slips one over on the Michigan Assassin. And yet, the Ketchel-Papke fight of last Labor day can by no means be forgotten. What a licking Ketchel did get on that occasion.

The much-heard-of sprints between Robby Kerr of Hamilton and Reggie Walker of South Africa will take place at the English championships on Saturday next. In the hundred-yard dash Walker is a slight favorite but Kerr is expected to win the 220 in handy fashion.

BASEBALL BITS

The Detroit club has purchased Bennett park for $20,000, and will build a modern baseball plant next year.

It is reported in St. Louis that Jimmy McAleer has resigned the management of the Browns.

The National league race is altogether too one-sided for general all-round prosperity. At this time last season but 149 points separated the last from the first club, while now 469 points separate Boston and Pittsburgh.

The Chicago Cubs have now a better percentage than they had this time last season, while Pittsburgh has travelled at a tremendous pace, already having made sure of at least second place.

Charles Ebbetts is willing to spend $20,000 to improve his team. Who wants part of this?

A friend of Cy Young, the Cleveland pitcher, took him through a shoe factory in Lynn recently, and before the big fellow had finished going over the plant a pair of shoes had been made to order for him.

Clark Griffith, of Cincinnati, would like to beat Bob Unglaub, of Washington, but that scrappy player is not for sale.

The Knights of Columbus and the Y. M. I. played ball yesterday at the Catholic outing at Goldstream and the Y. M. I. won out by the score of 2 to 0. A tug-of-war, foot races, and jumps were all indulged in at the outing and a very enjoyable day was spent. On the return there were fourteen cars crowded with picnicers who went up to see the sports.

Ketchel and Papke are both at weight for the big fray on July 5th.

AMUR IN PORT FROM NORTH

Brought News of Rich Finds on the Queen Charlotte Islands

JEDWAY SAW MILL BURNED DOWN

Fight Seen Between Whale and Threshers—Fish Poachers Are Busy

The steamer Amur, which returned to port yesterday morning from Naas, Queen Charlotte Islands, and other ports, brought a good complement of passengers, and 45,000 feet of lumber from Swanson Bay. Included among her passengers was R. C. Campbell-Johnson, a mining engineer, who brought news of new strikes on the northern islands; Messrs. Hodge and Haywood, directors of the Pacific Fisheries Company, which is erecting a large plant at Selwyn Inlet, who have been selecting other sites; J. J. Gopel, government auditor; A. Goring, who is developing a mining property at Tasso Harbor, on the west coast of the Queen Charlottes, and comes south for more miners; and D. R. Young, of Queen Charlotte City.

Several parties of surveyors were taken up, including a band of 7 for Messrs. Gore and Macgregor, who are to work around Queen Charlotte City; another of 11 for Mr. J. H. Taylor left at Bella-Coola, and a third for the Hills Lumber Company, which will cruise for lumber near Skidegate.

R. C. Campbell-Johnson, the mining expert, had some interesting details to tell of a find of gold-bearing pyrites. He said: "When the steamer came into Lockport it was nearly midnight, but the camp was alive and in commotion over a gold pan of crushed ore showing a fine tail of gold, guessed by the boys to represent an average of twenty five ounces, or in value $500 per ton of ore mined."

"The result was from oxidized honey-combed siliceous rock, and the inference at once was that the holes in the rock had acted as a rifle in the sluicing of the surface meteorological waters, and that only locally concentrated high values could be found. However, oxidation only extends a short depth in these rocks below the surface, and the normal unaltered arsenical pyrites was then dolled and panned, giving again high values, though not as rich as the gossan to the eye."

"Then the fun began. The sole store keeper was kept busy out of his bed executing orders for grub. Those without the regulation orthodox gold pans furnished and scoured their bannock baking tins and frying pans to remove the ancient bacon grease, which prohibits the elusive gold from remaining in the tails with even the most skilled manipulation. At cock-crow, or rather before the roosts get up, as there are no cocks in Lockport to greet the rosy-hued sun, mushers' packing cradles were strapped tight, boats with sails and oars were hauled down to the water level, and there were stealthy flittings by shadowy forms, each covertly stealing off to his little piece of country, with a specimen of the coveted rock to guide him in his quest."

"In due course some returned with a broad smile on their faces, and with good hand samples of newly discovered gold-bearing rock to justify their apparent contentment with the world; while others, not successful this time, had the normal prospector's optimism still expressed in their talk for better luck another time, when young men's fancies lightly turn to thoughts of ore, and the call of the mountains make the soles of their feet itch and tingle to start out."

"Gold in early days, though then in limited area, but of richness beyond the dreams of avarice, was found and shipped by the factors by the Golden Gate gold rock mined in Gold Harbor, on Moresby Island. Then came Colonel Toppings, of Trail fame, gold find in Cumbeche Inlet, followed by assays and results in the gold-copper ores from Ikeda Bay up to Lockport and Tasso Harbors."

Threshers Fight Whale.

Officers of the Amur tell of an exciting episode of the voyage north. A fight was witnessed between a whale and two threshers near Namu on June 19th. The whale was sorely punished, at times leaping high out of the water, with the threshers pounding his great sides. It was considered that a sword fish was busy underneath the whale, but those on the Amur had to take this for granted. They did not see the sword fish. The threshers were busy, however, and the water in the vicinity was reddened. The fight was still in progress, and the outlook bad for the whale when the steamer passed out of sight of the combat.

Saw Mill Burns.

News was brought by the Amur of the burning of the Jedway saw mill. The night prior to the arrival of the Amur at Jedway, June 20th, the mill took fire in the early morning, and when the watchman gave the alarm the whole place was in flames and was a total loss. Much of the timber in the yards was saved. The mill was owned by H. and H. A. Bourne, of Jedway.

A Big Blast.

When the steamer reached Prince Rupert word was sent out to Captain Locke for the vessel to moor out in the bay instead of proceeding alongside the wharf, as a big blast was about to be exploded. No less than twenty-eight shots were sent off together, the noise resembling the firing of a broadside. A small shed was demolished.

SUVERIC'S RACE WAS NEEDLESS

Was No Increased Tariff to Be Beaten in Her Hurry Across the Pacific

The race of the steamer Suveric against time to forestall an expected advance in the United States tariff on tea proved to be a vain enterprise—there was no new tariff or no advanced duties brought into effect, the time set according to the impression of the shippers and agents of the steamship line when the Suveric was sent out to race across the Pacific, omitting the call at this port to save time. The imaginary tariff was beaten by twelve hours.

While calling at Oriental ports from Hongkong to Yokohama, the Suveric was followed closely by the Pacific Mail steamer Asia and on leaving the latter port for America the Asia was only four hours behind. On the voyage across the Pacific the Asia won out, beating her own schedule by two days. She arrived at San Francisco Monday night, having steamed several hundred miles further than the Suveric but officers of the latter vessel say the Asia was built for two knots faster than the Suveric and that both passages are smart for their respective runs.

The Suveric brought a cargo consisting of between 9,000 and 10,000 tons, mostly tea, and all but a small amount for Tacoma. She carried 250 bales of raw silk.

Aside from the tea and general merchandise, the Suveric brought some 3,000 Springfield rifles, used in the Philippines, among them being the rifle taken from the insurgent leader, Aguinaldo, when he was captured by the American troops, and 60,000 rounds of ammunition, which are being brought to this country by William Gitts, formerly in the government service, who was in the Philippines and later, The Astral leaves San Francisco for New York early in August.

While the Suveric was at Kobe, officers of the vessel say the Tacoma Maru of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha, which will run between the Orient and Tacoma in connection with the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound railway, was in port and left for Hongkong on June 9 to load cargo for Tacoma.

CANADIAN LINE WILL BE AIDED

Manager of Pacific Mail Says Boycott Against His Company Will Aid C. P. R.

That the boycott declared by the Chinese at Hongkong against the Pacific Mail Steamship company will be beneficial to the Canadian Pacific steamship service is the statement made by A. J. Frey, assistant general manager of the Pacific Mail line. Mr. Frey stated that owing to the restrictions of the Chinese exclusion law of the United States and the immigration laws and regulations as regards trachoma, the Chinese passenger movement to San Francisco at the present time was practically nil, but on the other hand, the place where the Canadian Pacific operating from Hongkong to Vancouver, were carrying a very large passenger movement. In the case of the Canadian Pacific steamers, the Chinese, of course, would not be subject to the trachoma examination, either at Hongkong or Vancouver, and would only be subject to such examination should they, after arrival at Vancouver, make application for entry into the United States territory, in which event the trachoma examination would be made at the United States port of entry.

Mr. Frey asserted that if it proved true that the Hongkong Chinese had declared a boycott against the Pacific Mail, it would undoubtedly result in what little Chinese business is now being carried by the Pacific Mail being diverted to the steamers of the Canadian Pacific, though he stated that he was not inclined to believe that such a boycott had been decided upon, as the Chinese clearly recognized that the trachoma regulation is one enforced by the United States government and not by the steamship company on its own behalf.

At a meeting of 200 Chinese merchants connected with the American trade the boycott against the Pacific Mail Steamship company was declared Sunday night in Hongkong.

Several Chinese stated that passengers on one of the company's steamers were put ashore at Kobe on the ground that they had trachoma, despite the fact that they had been passed by the regular physicians at Hongkong. Their fares were not refunded and they had to pay their way back from Kobe, it was alleged.

The meeting decided to continue the boycott until the company made amends and guaranteed proper consideration for passengers.

STEAMBOATMEN OBSERVE HOLIDAY

Bunting Displayed by Craft in Port—Princess May Carried Many Excursionists

Domestic Day was well observed on the waterfront—the steamship men, the most part, made holiday, and all displayed bunting on their craft. The steamer Princess May, draped from end to end with strings of flags, went from the C. P. R. wharf at 9.30 a. m. with a crowd of over 500 passengers bound for Cowichan Bay with excursionists for the celebration being held there, and each of the regular steamers was well filled with excursionists.

The morning the Spokane came to the wharf with over 200 excursionists on board bound to the Alaskan coast, the regular steamer sailed at 10.45 a. m. In the inner harbor several cannery tenders were moored. Not all, though, were disengaged. In the afternoon the traps of Finlay Durham & Brodie at Sooke were lifted and the trawmen brought over 25 tons of spring salmon to the curing plants.

Off the Sooke reserve a flotilla of Indian craft anchored awaiting departure for the Fraser River had flags at their masts in honor of the day. In the early morning a long line of boats put out from this fleet proceeding to the fishing grounds.

JAPANESE LINERS TO CHANGE FUEL

Will Be Converted to Allow of Burning Coal on Way From Japan and Oil Homebound

Plans are nearly completed by the Toyo Kisen Kaisha for the use of coal, as well as oil, as fuel in the liners of the Japanese Steamship Company. Before the huge Tenyo Maru and Chiyō Maru were built the Japanese company contracted for an annual supply of several million barrels of California fuel oil, and at the same time began the construction in England of two huge tank steamers which were to be used in transporting the fuel from this coast to Japan.

It has since been found that the oil supply is not entirely adequate and there seems to be some danger of the company running out of fuel. It is proposed to avoid any possible embarrassment by replacing the oil-burners under some of the boilers with furnaces, and to use both coal and oil for fuel, the coal being taken aboard at Nagasaki and the oil on this coast. The plan is an innovation that is expected to prove highly satisfactory on the big turbine liners.

ODD CRAFT CROSSING THE ATLANTIC OCEAN

Reproduction of Three-century-old Half Moon of Henrik Hudson—Coming From Holland

New York, July 1.—The Half Moon, a reproduction of the sailing vessel in which Henry Hudson discovered the Hudson river 300 years ago, has just left Amsterdam, Holland on its way across the Atlantic to take part in the Hudson-Fulton celebration next fall in this city.

The Half Moon is a gift from the government of Holland to the committee having charge of the celebration. Before entering on its long cruise across the ocean, the Half Moon will stop at Rotterdam to enlist its crew. Thousands of sightseers gave the odd little craft a fine send-off as it left Amsterdam.

Will Extend Line Bates & Chesebrough, agents of sailing ships plying between San Francisco and New York, announce that vessels will leave the Atlantic & Pacific sides every six weeks, beginning January next. The service will not be extended to San Pedro and Puget Sound. The ship William P. Frey leaves New York for the Golden Gate August 1, and the Manga Reva sails for Philadelphia two weeks later. The Astral leaves San Francisco for New York early in August.

LUCIA DE LAMMERMOOR

Donizetti's Masterpiece Well Rendered by Boston Opera Company

Lucia di Lammermoor, Donizetti's masterpiece, was presented at the Victoria theatre last night by the Boston Grand Opera Company, and met with well deserved applause from an appreciative audience. The cast was a well balanced one, the choruses well sustained, and the principal characters all deserving of praise.

Mme. Judith M. Francini, who filled the title role possesses a splendid soprano voice, which she used to full advantage. In the mad scene she was at her best, both her acting and singing leaving little open for criticism. The musical setting to this scene abounds in arias, and these were taken by Mme Francini in irreproachable style. Her voice is powerful and tuneful, and full force and expression were given to the magnificent cadences of Donizetti.

As Lord Edgar Ravenswood, Signor Piero Gherardi gave a most forceful portrayal. In the scene where he discovers the supposed faithlessness of Lucia, his acting rose to a high order. His voice is of a highly expressive character, and the rich melodies afforded him a scope of which he took full advantage.

The sextette in the second act was admirably rendered, and evoked repeated applause. As Sir Arthur Bucklaw, Edward E. Olds proved a success, while the machinations of Sir Henry Ashton as portrayed by Gordon Hamilton were histrionically and vocally successful. The rest of the characters were well sustained, and the company is one of the best of its kind seen in the city for some time.

The orchestra gave a good rendering of the well known music.

Passion Play Pictures at Gorge

On Sunday evening, at the Gorge, the famous Passion Play pictures will be shown upon the moving picture screen and will be accompanied by a sacred concert by the city band under the leadership of Bandmaster Sidney Rogers. There will be 3,500 feet of films shown, showing the play in all detail. A specially attractive programme for the concert is being arranged. The management of the Gorge Park extends an invitation to everyone to be present Sunday evening to witness the reproduction of the famous picture film and to hear the sacred concert.

The Oberammergau Passion Play, or representation of the sufferings of Christ is not a survival of a miracle play, but took its rise from a vow made by the inhabitants of 1633, with the hope of staying the plague then raging. The original texts and arrangements are thought to have been made by the monks of Ettal, but they were carefully remodelled by the parish priest at the beginning of the present century, when the Oberammergau play obtained exemption from the general suppression of such performances by the Bavarian Government. The music was composed by Reubus Doder, schoolmaster of the parish in 1814. The performances take place on the Sundays of summer in a large open air theatre, holding 6,000 persons and each lasts nine hours with a short intermission at noon. Each scene from the history of Christ is prefaced by a tableau of typical import to the Old Testament. There are about seven hundred actors required. The proceeds of the performances are devoted to the good of the community after the defrayal of expenses. The Passion Play is regarded by the villagers as a solemn act of religious worship and the performances are characterized by the greatest reverence.

The principal parts are usually hereditary in certain families. The part of Christ is looked on as one of the greatest earthly honors.

"Salvation Nell"

Hope Latham is a native of Toronto, who has signally distinguished herself by her performance of a girl of nameless existence in "Salvation Nell," which Mrs. Pliske is presenting at the Victoria Theatre, July 3. This is Miss Latham's fourth year upon the stage, and critics predict for her, a brilliant future. She has played important roles with John Drew in "My Wife" and "His House in Order," and has played leading parts in several well-known stock companies.

Ethel Barrymore

There is a marked interest in the forthcoming appearance of Miss Ethel Barrymore at the Victoria Theatre this evening, when she will be seen in her latest success "Lady Frederick," a comedy in three acts, by W. Somerset Maugham, in which she has recently completed a notably successful engagement at the Hudson Theatre, in New York. Miss Barrymore is always a welcome visitor here, and the interest in her engagement on this occasion is double fold, because she is to appear in a play that has been characterized as the crowning achievement of the most brilliant English dramatist of the day, W. Somerset Maugham. "Jack Straw," and several other plays are from the pen of this new author, who has the remarkable distinction during the present season of having four of his plays acted at the same time at four of the leading theatres in London. In "Lady Frederick," Miss Barrymore is seen as an attractive Irish widow hopelessly in debt, living in most extravagant style at Monte Carlo, and with an army of suitors for her hand. The part offers unusual range and freshness of method and affords Miss Barrymore a unique character study. The supporting company includes Bruce McRae, Norman Tharp, Charles Hammond, Arthur Elliott, Orlando Daly, Jessie Millward, Vera Stowe, Anita Rothe, and others.

New Grand Theatre.

The splendid drawing bill at the Grand Theatre, which has been running all this week to crowded houses, will be continued again tonight and tomorrow night. The enthusiasm that has been shown to the posing dog Ben and his mistress, Mlle. Loreta, plainly marks that the performers in the statutory role are firm favorites. Indeed the dog's wonderful poses have been the subject of considerable talk. His stillness during all the performances is marvellous.

The quick changing of Eva Mudge as the heroine of the big act under the title of "The Military Maid," in which the petite actress impersonated many military characters, and effects the most marvellous changes. Her concluding impersonation and characterization of the highwayman is the best of the turn.

Jerre Sanford can whistle better and sweeter than most performers, and his work at the Grand this week has been certain for an encore every night. With good comedy and two songs, his whistling introduction is very much augmented, and the turn is particularly attractive.

There are also two domestic comedies, both of which are full of laughs. They are of the extremely humorous family kind, and in the hands of Rae and Brosche and MacBarnes and Louise Reming company are acted to the limit of the fun there is in them. Thomas J. Price wins considerable applause with his rendering of the new song "Some Day," and the motion pictures are also greeted with praise. The overture by the Grand orchestra is Sousa's "Charlatan March."

Pantages Theatre.

Within three weeks after closing their week's engagement at the local Pantages Theatre, Lorimer Johnstone and Caroline Cooke jump to New York city, where they are booked for the entire season in the higher class theatre there. They have just closed a successful season in London, and this is just to imply that their presence in the west at the present time is a little vacation trip, and that local theatre goers are lucky. It's a classy show all the way through at Pantages.

NAKUSP FLOURISHES

Excellent Promise of Crops—Ministerial Visit Red Letter Day in Town's History

Nakusp, July 1.—The spring in this town and surrounding country has been late, but owing to the recent rains the plants have made rapid growth.

There are now good indications of a bountiful harvest of the different kinds of crops. The apple and other fruit trees have survived the winter's frost without injury and are now in a healthy condition. The strawberry vines are laden with luscious fruit and the members of the Fruit Growers association hope to receive a goodly number of shekels for the commodity this season, as it is reported that strawberries are scarce in the western part of British Columbia. In addition to the farming and fruit growing industry on the table lands in the neighborhood of the town the C. P. R. has a shipyard where about thirty ship carpenters and mechanics have been employed, building barges and boats which ply on Arrow Lakes between Robson and Arrowhead.

The Canadian Bank of Commerce has opened a branch in Nakusp with Mr. Pangman, late of Kamloops, as manager.

Mr. Hammond, agent for the Kootenay Orchard association, has built an office on Front street, where he will sell the earth to those wishing to invest in real estate.

C. Mustard, B. A., of Knox college, Toronto, is the acting pastor of the Presbyterian church for the summer months.

The citizens of Nakusp have recently organized a board of trade to advance the commercial and agricultural interests of the town and district with F. W. Jordan, merchant, as president.

On Saturday, June 26, Hon. Richard McBride, premier, and Hon. Thos. Taylor, minister of public works, with Wm. Hunter, M. P. for Slocan electoral district, visited Nakusp. The event may be recorded as an historic day for the "Infant city."

The members of the board of trade chartered the S. S. Minto and about 350 of the residents went for picnic on Arrow lake and afterwards accompanied the premier and his colleagues to Arrowhead for the C. P. R. train. During the pleasant sail the prime minister of the province was presented with an address of welcome by citizens committee, viz.: Messrs. T. Abriel, D. Bulger and F. W. Jordan. In the address the various wants of the town and vicinity were enumerated, such as better roads, trails and bridges, a larger public building for the mining recorder and constable, and other utilities for the people. The premier thanked the citizens in a courteous manner for their hospitable welcome and assured them that their wishes would be considered. Hon. Thos. Taylor spoke in complimentary terms of the voters of Nakusp who formerly helped to elect him with a large majority. The closing speech was made by W. Hunter, M. P., who congratulated the ranchers and business men on their industry and energy. He told them that their requests would have his sympathy and support.

MESSINA SHAKEN BY EARTHQUAKE

Very Destructive Shocks Felt at Sicilian City and Reggio

Messina, Italy, July 1.—Earth shocks here and at Reggio at 7.20 o'clock this morning created a panic among the people of these two cities. Walls of houses that were not completely destroyed in the visitation of last December were shaken down, and the inhabitants rushed to the streets towards the open air. Women and children were caught under wreckage and sustained serious injuries and one woman subsequently died. The earth shocks have been becoming more intense recently, and last night they were sufficiently severe to cause alarm. The shocks of this morning were accompanied by deep roaring sounds. The first one was followed by an explosion like the roar of a cannon and lasted between eight and ten seconds, which seemed an eternity to the terrified people.

Shock Felt at Reggio.

Reggio, Italy, July 1.—A strong earth shock was experienced here at 7.20 o'clock this morning. Many walls were thrown down, but up to the present time no casualties have been reported. The people have been in a condition of panic which has been added to by the contradictory reports of the severity of the earthquake at Messina.

It is said that this quake was of greater severity than the fatal one of the night of December 28th. The wooden houses and huts erected for the accommodation of the people seemed to be thrown from one side to another. Cries filled the air as the people fled in terror. As on the night of December 28th, the first shock was followed by a circular movement of the ground.

Five minutes later there came another quake accompanied by further roaring sounds. This completed the destruction. The remains of the devastated houses collapsed and the entire district was covered by a dense cloud of dust.

Detachments of troops and carabinieri were despatched for the protection of the wooden huts built with American money that had not yet been distributed. The population, fleeing from the districts where the houses threatened to fall upon them, rushed towards the American huts, with the intention of taking possession of them. Between 8 o'clock last night and 20 minutes past seven this morning a total of eight shocks were experienced here. The instruments of the observatory have registered a total of ten shocks of varying severity since 7.20 o'clock this morning. News that has come in here from the provinces shows that damage has been wrought there, but it is as yet impossible to correctly estimate the extent of the disaster. Sailors, soldiers and policemen have been sent out through the district to prevent looting and give courage to the people.

The woman who lost her life was sitting in the doorway of her house when the shock occurred. She rushed inside and caught up a child eight months old and started to make her way to the street. In the meanwhile the second shock precipitated the floor of the house and both mother and child were buried. Soldiers hurried to the scene and began a work of rescue. The child was taken out alive but up to the present time the woman has not been found. She was heard ten minutes after the first shock crying for assistance.

Grief at Rome

Rome, July 1.—King Victor Emmanuel Queen Helena were deeply grieved at the second earthquake at Messina, and they are waiting anxiously for details. Her Majesty was gratified to learn that the village of Regina Elena, on the outskirts of Messina, under her auspices, had escaped uninjured. The houses in this village are all of wood. Father J. H. Dagen, director of the Vatican observatory, was the first person to inform the Pope of a strong earthquake shock. His information was confirmed shortly afterwards by from the archbishop of Messina and the bishop of Mileto.

HIGH GRADE ORE IN PHILIPPINES

Manila, July 1.—Two strikes of exceedingly rich gold bearing ore were made almost simultaneously this week on the island of Luzon. The first strike was made in the Paracale district, Camarines province, and the other in the Baguio district of the Benguet province.

In the former the stringer in the lode is reported to run 250 feet to the top, and the lode itself $500. This property is controlled by Frank Ingersoll, formerly of Seattle. There has been a small rush of prospectors to the Paracale district during the summer, where one dredger has been working for a year with good results.

As a result of the latest discovery two dredgers and two mills will soon be under construction. The district is an old one and preparations made to work the ground extensively with European capital were interrupted a few years ago by the war and later by the insurrection of the natives.

The ore found in the Benguet province assayed $8,000 to the ton. The mines in this district were discovered and developed by Americans. Three of the properties are operating mills. Neither district is a poor man's proposition and prospectors without considerable means are warned not to rush there.

WHY HE MURDERED SWEDISH GENERAL

Stockholm, July 1.—Further evidence of an anarchist plot to assassinate the Emperor of Russia came to light during his approaching European trip was unearthed here today. Adolf Vang, the Swede who last week shot and killed Major General Beckman, chief of the coast artillery, and who committed suicide, belonged to a group of anarchists who have been plotting against the Russian ruler.

Eight Russian anarchists were arrested previous to the killing of General Beckman, but the apprehension was kept secret. Two of them were found hiding in the palace. Vang left a letter saying that in so much as his Russian comrades had been arrested it was impossible for him alone to kill the Emperor. Consequently he assassinated the first official he met.

PETROSINO SUSPECT HELD IN MEXICO

New York, July 1.—A Mexico City despatch to the Herald says that an Italian giving the name of Alvaro, who the Mexican authorities believe to be the slayer of Detective Petrosino, is under arrest in that city.

The arrest was made on Tuesday of last week, but the fact was kept a close secret pending investigation of the man's record. The prisoner is about 31 years old and despite his assertion that he has been in Mexico more than four months, evidence is at hand that he reached Mexico less than two months ago.

The despatch quotes the Mexican Herald as saying: David Thompson, U. S. Ambassador to Mexico, learned from Washington that it was believed by the New York police that Petrosino's slayer had been traced to Mexico. He communicated the fact to the Italian minister, who took the matter up with Minister Mariscal of the Department of Foreign Relations. The result was that the Mexican secret service took it up.

It was ordered that in Syracuse, N. Y., Salt Lake City, Utah and Spokane, Wash., the local council unseat local unions organized in violation of this decision, and that for failure to do so, the local councils be required to surrender their charters.
